ANOTHER CONFEDERATE VET ANSWERS LAST ROLL CALL

Following close to Memorial Day another Confederate veteran and member of James D. Nance camp has answered the last roll call and all that is mortal of M. Hamilton Buzhardt is no more. He was taken suddenly ill at his residence near the city on Friday morning and at 4:15 a. m. on Sunday passed peacefully into the happy hunting grounds of the great beyond.

Mr. Buzhardt was a private in Company H Holcombe Legion, Captain James M. Maffett and the record in the Annals of Newberry states that he was "discharged at Point Lookout." The name is recorded as Hamilton B. Buzhardt.

Mr. Buzhardt would have been 75 years old in October next. He is survived by his wife who was a Miss Werts and two children by a former marriage, Bluford M. Buzhardt of the county and Mrs. Rufus Williams of the city. And one daughter by the second marriage, Mrs. B. L. Bishop who with her husband lived with him.

Funeral service was held at the residence at 1 o'clock on Monday and interment immediately after at Colony Lutheran church of which church Mr. Buzhardt was a member, the service being conducted by the pastor, the Rev. L. P. Boland.

It was the week of the reunion in Birmingham that we talked with Mr. Buzhardt about attending and he said he could not go. He was in the city on Thursday of last week in his usual health.

Mr. Buzhardt and Mr. Cal Neel, now dead, and Mr. D. A. Ruff were great friends and during their life were generally seen in Newberry together. Mr. Neel died a few years ago and Mr. Ruff is still living though having almost lost his eyesight. One by one they go and soon they will all have crossed to join their great leaders and their brave compatriots of the sixties in the tented fields on the other shore. Peace be unto them.

"THE CLARION" AT THE OPERA HOUSE TODAY

"The Clarion," in which the Equitable star, Carlyle Blackwell, will be seen at the Opera House today, is a picturization of the famous American novel of the same name by Samuel Adams. It deals with the manufacture of fraudulent and dangerous patent medicines, and is a story of absorbing heart interest and tremendous dramatic power.

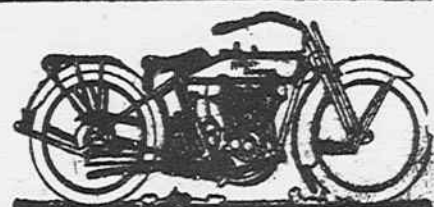

Mr. Blackwell appears in the part of the young newspaper editor who fulfills his resolve to print nothing but the truth to the point of exposing his father's fraudulent practices and estranging himself from the girl he loves. The great climax comes when a mob of thousands of infuriated foreigners swarms down upon the newspaper office and blows it to pieces with a bomb. This scene alone is enough to put the picture in the list of the six best pictures of the year.

The Equitable directors have provided a particularly brilliant cast in support of their noted star including such names as Marion Dentler, Howard Hall, Charles Mason, Rosemary Dean, Albert Hart, Jean Stewart, George Soule Spencer and Philip Hahn. The picture was directed by James Durkin.
